

BRACKNELL TOWN COUNCIL CODE OF CONDUCT POLICY

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS AND CO-OPTED MEMBERS

BRACKELL TOWN COUNCIL

This Code of Conduct was adopted by the Council at its meeting on 21st February 2023, pursuant to the Localism Act 2011 and its duty to promote and maintain high standards of conduct by Members and Co-opted Members of the Council.

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 This Code of Conduct has been adopted by the Council pursuant to the Localism Act 2011 and the duty to promote and maintain high standards of conduct by Members and Co-opted Members of the Council.

1.2 Failure to comply with the requirements of Section 7 of this Code, other than paragraph 7.3(c), constitutes a criminal offence for which I may be prosecuted. Failure to comply with any of the other sections of the Code or paragraph 7.3(c) may result in my public censure of you by the Council.

1.3 Common law developed by the courts indicates that, at least in relation to “quasi-judicial” functions such as Licensing and Planning, councillors should not participate if a reasonable member of the public who is neither complacent nor unduly sensitive or suspicious would in the circumstances conclude that there is a real possibility of bias. This Code requires councillors to excuse themselves from involvement in decision making where they have a “Disclosable Pecuniary Interest” or an “Affected Interest” (as defined by the Code) in the matter under consideration. However, it is possible that when exercising such a “quasi-judicial” function interests other than Disclosable Pecuniary Interests or Affected Interests could lead a reasonable member of the public to conclude that there was a real possibility of bias on the part of a councillor. In such circumstances the councillor should not participate in the decision-making process (i.e., the councillor should not vote nor, unless they are requested by the Chair of the Committee on a point of clarification, speak on the matter). In cases of doubt or difficulty advice should be sought from the Borough Solicitor.

1.4 Though not forming part of this Code councillors should have regard to Guidance on Local Government Association Model Councillor Code of Conduct insofar as it provides explanatory relating to obligations which are included in this document.

Where the value is not immediately apparent the value is that which a reasonable member of the public would estimate for the gift or hospitality. I shall err on the side of caution i.e. if there is any doubt as to whether the gift or hospitality is registrable I shall register it.

The notice to the Town Clerk should state: -

(a) the nature of the gift or hospitality provided

(b) the identity of the source providing the gift or hospitality, and (c) the date on which the gift or hospitality was provided. The register of gifts or hospitality will be made available for public inspection

12. Bias and Predetermination

12.1 I am aware that in addition to the Provisions of this Code relating to Disclosable Pecuniary Interests and Affected Interests, a decision that I am involved in making, either as an individual Councillor or as a Member of a Committee can be set aside if it is found that in making my decision, I closed my mind to all considerations other than my already held view.

12.2 The test applied by Courts on establishing whether a decision has been tainted by bias or predetermination is whether the circumstances were such as would lead a fair minded and informed observer to conclude that there was real risk that I had predetermined the outcome.

12.3 In addition to a decision being set aside as a result of bias or predetermination I could be found to have brought my Council and the Office into disrepute under paragraph 3.5 of the Code.
